No DART First State Service on Thanksgiving Day; Regular Service on Friday – On Thanksgiving Day, Thursday, November 24, 2011, DART First State statewide services, both fixed route and paratransit, will not operate. SEPTA Wilmington/Newark train service will operate on its weekend schedule. On the day after Thanksgiving, Friday, November 25, 2011, DART First State will operate regular service on both fixed route and paratransit. SEPTA Wilmington/Newark train service will also operate regular service.

DART Downtown Wilmington Bus Service Changes Would Have No Significant Safety or Traffic Impacts in the Shipley Street Area - The Delaware Department of Transportation (DeIDOT) has announced that an outside third-party expert has concluded that downtown Wilmington bus service changes proposed by DART First State in March would have no significant safety or traffic impacts on the Shipley Street area. The study was conducted by Parsons Brinckerhoff (PB), a nationally respected traffic engineering firm with significant experience in bus transportation issues. Based upon the findings and conclusions of the study, DeIDOT Secretary Shailen Bhatt expressed his Department's support for the proposed route changes, provided the improvements proposed in the study are implemented.
